

Camps:

Willow Creek Classic Camp - "Hellgate Campground, Canyon Ferry Lake", June 9-10

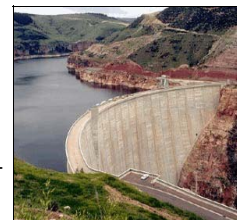

Registration is now open for families interested in attending the Willow Creek Classic, a natural resources camp for youth and adults interested in history, geology, wildlife, agriculture, and conservation. The Willow Creek Classic began in Gallatin County in 1984 near Willow Creek, MT and remained there for six years until a decision was made to rotate the event among several counties. This year, the camp will be held near Canyon Ferry Lake in the Hellgate Campground on June 9th and 10th. The camp will begin at noon on Saturday, June 9th with a barbecue lunch. Afternoon classes will include a presentation on the Canyon Ferry Dam by the Department of Reclamation and a tour of area Native American pictographs by the U.S. Forest Service. Dinner will be served at 5:30 and a program on edible wild plants will round out the evening. Sunday morning classes include a boating safety program by the U.S. Coast Guard and an introduction to sailing. The camp concludes immediately after lunch on Sunday. The Willow Creek Classic is designed as a family experience. Children and their parents are asked to attend together and bring their own camping gear. The group campsite at Hellgate Campground can accommodate RVs, trailers, and tents. The registration fee is $17.50 per person with a $60 family maximum. Registration includes all meals, workshop fees, campground fees, and educational materials from Saturday noon through Sunday noon! Please pre-register with the Gallatin County Extension Office by Monday, June 4, 2007. Late registrations will be accepted only on first come, first served basis if space is available. There will be a late fee of $5.00 per person after June 4th. The event capacity is 60.

Summer Camp - "Shift Into High Gear-Cars the Movie" Hyalite Camp, June 19-22

The Gallatin County 4-H Summer Camp is for campers ages 9-19 interested in outdoors & hands on experiences. Check with your club leaders or Unlimited Council for information regarding help with funds for this event. There are scholarships available. To avoid late fees you must turn in a completed registration form and payment by Monday, June 4, 2007.

Cross County 4-H Exchange Trip Announced

The Big Horn County 4-H Program has invited Gallatin County 4-H youth, ages 9-12, to participate in a cross-county exchange trip this August. Gallatin County families will host Big Horn County Youth on the weekend of August 10-12 and then travel to Big Horn County on August 17-19. This is a great way to meet new people, make new friends, and learn new things. Big Horn County has planned a great weekend for our youth including a trip to the Little Big Horn Battle Field and Museum, a tour of the Yellowtail Dam, an introduction to Crow Indian dancing and music, and a barbecue and breakfast. The sights to see and things to do in the Gallatin County arena are open to suggestion but may include the Lewis and Clark Caverns and Virginia City. The cost to participate will be around $30 per person. If interested, please contact the Gallatin County MSU Extension Office (4-H) at 388-3213 for complete details. The capacity of the exchange is 25 youth, so please contact us as soon as possible. Chaperones also wanted.

Fair Concession Manager Needed

Attention Clubs, we are looking for someone to takeover the 4-H concessions at the Summer Fair. This is a paid position. Fair concessions is one of our biggest fund raisers for the 4-H Council. The 4-H Unlimited Leaders Council helps many 4-Hers each year with books and project materials, scholarships for camps, trips, etc. If you are interested in becoming the concession manager, please contact us at 388-3213. If you have more questions, please call us.
